

SWEETHEART LOST, HE DRANK IODINE; SENT TO BELLEVUE

Freight Handler in Farewell
Letter Asked That Girl's
Name Be Concealed.

John Russell, twenty-three years old, of No. 467 West Thirty-seventh Street, a freight handler employed in West New York, was taken to Bellevue Hospital early to-day a prisoner charged with attempting suicide by drinking iodine. His condition is serious.

A misunderstanding with his sweetheart is the alleged cause. He had been talking to Joseph Snyder of No. 331 Thirtieth Street, West New York, before he drank the poison, and Snyder called the police.

Russell worked from 6 P. M. until 5 A. M. in the Jersey freight yards, and had little time to take his sweetheart to dances and theatres, which he thought gave his rivals an advantage. He took last night off and Snyder came over to visit him. Russell is alleged to have drunk the poison after talking gloomily of being "cut out." The police say this letter was found in his room:

"Dear Joe—Tell Mike to tell her it's all over now. This is from Jack, who will be 'dead' Jack."

P. S.—Tell her not to say who it is. She will know without telling. She will know also why I did it. Tell all to be good. Goodbye and God forgive me, and all that live. Don't make any fuss about it. Let me go quietly. It's the best thing I ever did. Don't let them use her name.

"RUSSELL."

Snyder refused to tell the police the name of the girl, who lives in West New York.

PLAN TO END ACCIDENTS.

Railroad Officials to Adopt New Safety Rules.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Presidents and vice presidents of practically every railway in the country met here to-day to enact rules designed to prevent accidents in hauling high explosives and to stop rear end collisions and other disasters that have resulted when "somebody forgot." Legislation recommended by the organization, which is known as the American Railway Association, will automatically go into effect throughout the country, it is said.
